

The Black Down & Hindhead Supporters of the National Trust

Privacy Policy

The Black Down and Hindhead Supporters of the National Trust Committee considers your personal privacy to be very important. We use the personal contact data you provide solely for the purposes of administering your membership or event/competition entry, considering our lawful basis for handling your data to be a 'contract' administering your membership and providing you with our membership benefits or event/competition details.

We ask for your specific consent to contact you with information about our fundraising events or projects, and you can contact us at any time (admin@blackdownhindheadNTsupporters.org) to be removed from any such marketing circulations. We will action your request within one month.

We undertake to store your data safely and will never share your personal contact details with any third parties. Your personal data will be retained only for the time that you are a member, or for the time the event or competition is current, after which it will be deleted. We are legally required to retain financial transaction information for seven years.

You may at any time contact the BDHH Committee (admin@blackdownhindheadNTsupporters.org) to ask for a copy of the data we hold about you, you can request any errors to be rectified and you can request that your personal data be deleted. We undertake to action such requests within a month of your request, to the extent we are legally able. You have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners' Office if you think there is a problem with the way we are handling your data.