

2024 Photography Competition

Closing Date: 30 November 2024

This year's theme is GREEN.

Win some fabulous prizes!

Black Down & Hindhead
Supporters of the National Trust

Rules:

1. Open to all amateur photographers but excluding National Trust staff and Blackdown and Hindhead Supporters Committee. Under 16's must have the permission of a parent or guardian and their images must be submitted by the parent or guardian.
2. There is no fee to enter, but a donation is welcomed, no matter how large or small, by bank transfer to Black Down & Hindhead Supporters of the National Trust Account No: 01950670, Sort Code: 30-93-94 using "photocomp" as the reference.
3. Subject: pictures of flora, fauna, landscapes and scenery within the boundaries of, or from the following National Trust properties:
Black Down, Hindhead Common, Devil's Punch Bowl, Polecat, Marley Common, Marley Wood, Marley Heights, Swan Barn Farm, Golden Valley, Woodcock Bottom, Whitmore Vale, Whitmore Park and Windy Gap, Grayswood Common and Pond, Shottermill Ponds and Fields, Kingsley Green, Graig's Wood and Tyndall's Wood, Valewood and Valewood Park, Roundhurst Common, Stroatley Green, Weydown Common, The Quell and Quellwood Common, or Nutcombe Valley.
4. All image entries must be the work of the individual submitting them, and they must not have been published elsewhere or have won a prize in any other competition.
5. Up to two images to be submitted by email to admin@blackdownhindheadnts supporters.org indicating photographer's name, email address, telephone number, age (if under 16) and where each image was taken.
6. The judges reserve the right to exclude any image which they believe has been unduly enhanced.
7. Where an image includes residential property, children or adults as a main recognisable feature of the image, then the permission of the owner, person/people or parent/guardian must be obtained. These photos may be published in newsletters, online or in the local press during the current competition year.
8. Photos taken from a drone are not accepted as the use of drones is not allowed over any National Trust land without a permit and we do not wish to encourage their use through the competition.
9. It is a condition of entry that the originator accepts that the organisers may use the images for non-commercial exhibition or publication, in newsletters, calendars, correspondence or other publicity, including online. We will attempt to credit the originator where possible so that your name appears with the photograph. You may request that we do not include your name if you prefer – simply tell us when submitting your photo or at any time in the future. If your photo is used on our website, you may ask us at any time to remove it and we will undertake to do so within two weeks of your request.
10. Judges: a panel will consist of two representatives of the Black Down & Hindhead Supporters of the National Trust and one representative of the Haslemere Camera Club.
11. The judges' decisions will be final. No correspondence can be entered into.
12. By entering the competition, entrants will be deemed to have agreed to the above rules.
13. The winners' will be contacted by email. Names will be published on our website and in a Newsletter circulated to all Members.
14. The prizes (vouchers) sponsored by Raymond Reid Photo, Haslemere are as follows:
1st prize £75.00 – 2nd prize £50.00 – 3rd prize £25.00 available after November 2024.

15. We will store your name and email address in a spreadsheet for the duration of this year's competition, after which your email address will be deleted. Please do not send us your address or telephone number - we do not store these details.
16. We retain your name associated with your photo entries in order to be able to credit you as the photographer. (See rule 9.)
17. Our privacy policy is available on our website.

Why not join us?

The Black Down & Hindhead Supporters of the National Trust is a local Committee, independent of the National Trust, which runs talks and events for the local community. Through these and membership subscriptions, we raise funds to provide such items as information panels, way markers, tools, fencing and play areas to enhance the Blackdown and Hindhead National Trust properties and the visitor experiences.

Membership, with a recommended donation of £25.00 per annum, with Gift Aid as appropriate, can be applied for by downloading the Application Form from our website, or emailing admin@blackdownhindheadntsupporters.org